Members of Class #9 Should Be Sitting Together Today

The Worship Leader – Sis. Tukiya Tilus

*The Doxology "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow"

*The Call to Worship Bro. Christopher Hawk

Leader: O Lord, who on this day entered the rebellious city that later rejected you:

People: we confess that our wills are as rebellious as Jerusalem's, that our faith is often more show than substance, that our hearts are in need of cleansing.

Leader: Have mercy on us, son of David, Savior of our lives.

People: Help us to lay at your feet all that we have and all that we are, trusting you to forgive what is sinful,

All: to heal what is broken, to welcome our praises, and to receive us as your own. Amen.

John Parlborg

*The Hymn of Praise AMEH #131 "O'er All The Way"

(Worshipers May Enter)

1 O'er all the way green palms and blossoms gay. Are strewn this day in festal preparation, Where Jesus comes, to wipe our tears away; E'en now the throng to welcome Him prepare.

Refrain: Join, sing His name divine, Let every voice resound with united acclamation, Hosanna! Praised be the Lord, Bless Him who cometh to bring us salvation.

2 His word goes forth, and people by its might. Once more their freedom gain from degradation; Humanity doth give to each his right, While those in darkness find restored the light. [Refrain]

3 Sing and rejoice, O blest Jerusalem, Of all thy songs sing the emancipation;
Through boundless love, the Christ of Bethlehem Brings forth the hope to thee forevermore.
[Refrain]

The Worship Through Scripture Matthew 21: 1-11 NIV Bro. Everett Reynolds

(Please Read In Unison - No Walking, Entry, or Exit At This Time)

As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, ² saying to them, "Go to the village ahead of you, and at once you will find a donkey tied there, with her colt by her. Untie them and bring them to me. ³ If anyone says anything to you, say that the Lord needs them, and he will send them right away." ⁴ This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet: ⁵ "Say to Daughter Zion, 'See, your king comes to you, gentle and riding on a donkey, and on a colt, the foal of a donkey.'" ⁶ The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them. ⁷ They brought the donkey and the colt and placed their cloaks on them for Jesus to sit on. ⁸ A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. ⁹ The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed shouted, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Hosanna in the highest heaven!" ¹⁰ When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, "Who is this?" ¹¹ The crowds answered, "This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee."

Leader: This is God's Word for God's people. It is already blessed. Amen.

Kidney Donation

There are two types of kidney transplants: a deceased donor kidney transplant and a living donor kidney transplant. A deceased donor kidney comes from someone who has died and made the decision to become an organ donor. A kidney from a living donor is from someone who is living, has two healthy kidneys, and chooses to donate one to someone in need. A living donor can be someone you know, like a family member or friend, but they do not need to be related to you.

The first step to getting a deceased or living donor kidney is to have an evaluation at a transplant center. In most cases, a potential living donor can be evaluated at the same time as the recipient, who is the person with kidney disease who needs a kidney.

Living Kidney Donation

Living kidney donation is when a healthy person donates one of their two kidneys while they are alive. Getting a kidney from a living donor has lots of benefits for the person who needs a transplant, called the recipient. If you are interested in donating a kidney, you will work with a transplant center at a hospital. The transplant center will make sure you are healthy enough to donate, do the surgery, and help you recover.

Who can be a living donor?

There are a few common requirements for people who are interested in living donation. You must be at least 18 years old. Some transplant centers require a donor to be 21 or even a little older. There are some medical conditions that could prevent you from being a living donor, including having uncontrolled high blood pressure, diabetes, or cancer. If you're a smoker, you will most likely be asked to quit before being approved to donate. You should be honest with the team about your smoking habits to make sure that the donation and transplant are successful.

Each transplant center has slightly different requirements, so you should always let the transplant center decide who would be a good donor. If you are approved as a living donor at one transplant center, you may be able to get evaluated at other centers who have different requirements.
